

Consignment Contract

The following are the terms and conditions of the consignment between Sixpence Bridal and the consigner:

All dresses must be in like new condition and clean enough to be put out right away. All dresses must be cleaned, odour free, pet hair free with no stains, holes, missing buttons or beads, broken zippers and torn seams. We will inspect all merchandise that comes into the store. We ask that all dresses are current styles and less than 2-3 years old. Sixpence reserves the right to accept or decline any merchandise brought into the store that we do not feel are capable of being sold.

The consignment contract will last for 8 months. Sixpence will work with you to agree upon a price for the items you are consigning. You will receive 50% of the price of the item once it has sold. All estimates of selling value are opinion and shall not be construed as any promise to sell the items at that set price. Sixpence reserves the right to discount your items after 3 months of being in the shop, regardless of the consignment date. A 25% fee will be charged if you remove your gown before the 8 month contract date.

Ownership of the items is retained by the consigned during the agreement period and all consigned items are left at your own risk. The gowns will be being tried on and handles and some wear on the item should be expected. Sixpence assumes no liability for fire, flood, theft, damage, loss or damage of merchandise by accident. While Sixpence will take all reasonable and necessary to prevent loss, theft or damage to each item, our consignment agreement will relieve Sixpence for such loss, theft or damage.

While showcasing your gown at Sixpence Bridal Studio all other selling ads (Kijiji, Ebay, Auction sites, etc.) must be taken down and removed.

Sixpence will notify you once your item has sold. Sixpence will NOT notify you when your contract has ended. At the end of the 8 months, if you have not heard from us to let you know your dress has been sold, you will have 14 days to pick up your items or request a renewal of the contract. After the 14 days your items will become property of Sixpence and may be donated to a local charity.

I have read the contract in full and agree to the terms and conditions of the contract. I agree to consign my items at Sixpence Bridal consignment studio.
